

Flagging a national issue

CHLOE Sanderson and Lee Johnson from Lynall Hall Community School in Richmond were just shooting the breeze last Friday, while the breeze was busy flapping a flag overhead. The Australian flag was raised for the first time at the school during a special flag raising ceremony that day, attended by local MP Lindsay Tanner. It was all in honour of a new school flagpole that was erected following a government grant.